

Half the adjudicated families rest on chemical plausibility alone

Tier 6 alone can never rule a family out under the protocol, so these 17 families default to counting. Eight of the 35 have no phage-specific evidence of any kind (§3.3).